MONTHLY RARE COIN BULLETIN

VOL. I

SEPTEMBER 1945

NO. 8

This column is run so that beginners in coin collecting may become acquainted with the different dealers, advertising in this bulletin.

Each month there will be a different dealer recommended.

HANS M. F. SCHULMAN

The Schulman family has always been interested in coins!

Grandfather Jacques Schulman, was a collector of coins and dealt in antiques. He lived in a small town near Amsterdam, The Netherlands. In 1880 he opened a numismatic business and he instructed his two sons, Maurits and Andre to take care of that part of the business.

Soon they all moved to Amsterdam where the family bought a stately four-story house on one of Amsterdam's picturesque canals—Keizersgracht 448.

The antique business was soon given up and all the time was devoted to coins. Famous auctions were held and many valuable catalogues issued. In 1914, grandfather died and his sons, Maurits (more generally known as Max) Hans Schulman's father, and Andre, his uncle, took over.

The war broke out but business went on in neutral Holland. Hans' father made his first trip to the United States in 1916 through the blockade and from then on visited this country every year. Hundreds of catalogs were issued and some very famous auctions were held in the years between 1920 and 1930. The coin business was booming partly because of the fact that in the post-war period, people became much more "Collecting-conscious" than before. In 1929 the depression came and was felt as much in Holland as in any other country.

They had often discussed the opening of an office in the United States but

All advertisers using red ● will buy coins in same condition as offered for sale @ 20% less than their selling price. In all cases limited quantities will be bought. All advertisers agree to make a full cash refund on any coin returned within 5 days, after receipt of same.

All advertising is edited to conform to requirements of bulletin. 8 point type is smallest used. I personally recommend all advertisers using bulletin space.

IMPORTANT NEWS!

We are preparing a beautiful catalogue of several hundred pages and with several illustrations.

Among the contents the collector will find ALL the information necessary to identify his foreign and other coins and to know their value.

The collector will find page after page of general information for which he has been looking for years.

We will have a complete listing of all odd and curious coins known, together with their values, edited by Howard D. Gibbs.

(A great part to be offered for sale.)

We hope to release our catalog in the late fall.

IF NOT ON OUR MAILING LIST, PLEASE DROP US A CARD.

JOHN H. HANSAN

1326 Main Street

Kansas City 6, Mo.

HANS M. F. SCHULMAN (cont'd)

the step was never taken before 1939 when Hans' father sent him to this country. In September of that year, Hans opened his office at 545 Fifth Avenue on the corner of 45th Street on the ninth floor of one of New York's well-known buildings. The war broke out in that same month and nine months later the Nazis moved into Holland and no further contact could be had between his father and himself.

Exactly what happened during the four years of Nazi domination in Holland is not entirely clear at the writing of this article. One thing is certain—no trace has been found of Mr. Schulman's father at this date and it seems to be doubtful that he may hear from him in the near future.

Hans Schulman has found a beautiful homeland in these United States and he is proud of his being an American citizen.

Hans Schulman has had auctions but he has specialized in private sales and the issuance of priced catalogues. Along the general line of foreign coins, he has gone deeply into the origin of numismatics, i.e., the study of odd and curious mediums of exchange. It is to this field that a great part of Mr. Schulman's fall catalog will be devoted. He has also made a particular study of the South American, West Indies, and Canadian series.

Hans Schulman is always glad to welcome any numismatic visitor to his offices.

Eleventh Edition

1946

The next edition of this important catalogue should be ready about October 15th. The edition will be strictly limited and we suggest that orders be sent to your regular dealer as soon as possible. Valuation changes occur in nearly all series based upon the retail and auction market during the past season. The entire series of half dollars has been added to the pattern section of the catalogue and five new plates illustrate the types.
